About Your Instructors

Cathy Liska is founder of Effect Services and has trained thousands. She is now recognized as one of the best coast-to-coast in training, mediation, coaching, and consulting. Cathy has been training mediators since 2003. Susan Dunn, an attorney in Charleston since 1977, has successfully argued before the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. She has over 20 years of experience as a mediator.

What is Mediation?

Mediation is a process in which a trained, neutral third-party facilitates communication and negotiations between people in conflict, to assist them in reaching a mutually acceptable agreement or a better understanding of each participant's interests, needs, values, and options.

Advantages of Mediation:

- *Saves time and acknowledges emotions, resulting in improved client relationships, leading to a higher collection rate
- *Parties decide the outcome, increasing compliance
- *Solutions can be customized to fit unique situations
- *Improves communication
